Whenever you dream of resting by a lake in the shade of Gothic castle walls and surrounded by greenery, think about Olsztyn – a town with history, sparkling lakes, good food, interesting things to see, comfortable hotels. Pay a visit and you will see that the spirit of Nicolas Copernicus hovers over the town the whole year round.
For children, younger and older ones, and for their parents – for their attention, satisfaction and better care of their kids’ happiness – we have prepared this guide to the town of Olsztyn, to educate and amuse, to train the body and the soul, and to encourage everyone to explore the beauty of Olsztyn. And it does not matter how old you are – five, ten or fifteen. Nor does it matter whether you live in our town or pay an occasional visit. What matters is that you would like to stay here for a while, or a little longer, or perhaps forever.

THE MAYOR OF OLSZTYN

Czesław Jerzy Małkowski
History is a life’s teacher

Olsztyn – a town where Nicolas Copernicus resided in the castle, a town frequented by the bishops Martin Kromer and Ignacy Krasicki, a town where Napoleon Bonaparte stayed overnight while getting ready for yet another battle, and a town visited in our times by Pope John Paul II – has 650 years of exciting and colourful history. There were joyful moments, like arrivals of newly appointed bishops to Warmia and horrifying events, such as great fires, epidemics and wars, which decimated the population and ruined the town. Olsztyn was looted by Lithuanian raids in the 13th and 14th century. Later it suffered during the wars between Poland and the Order of Teutonic Knights, which ended with the Toruń Peace Treaty of 1444. Peaceful and prosperous years came to an end in the 17th century, when Swedish troops arrived at the town’s gates. And then, following the first partition of Poland in 1772, Olsztyn was annexed by Prussia.

In summer the town is flooded with flowers and joy
For 306 years Olsztyn was subject of the Kingdom of Poland. Afterwards, for 173 years, it stayed within the borders of Prussia and Germany. In the 19th century Olsztyn flourished. Thousands of people were drawn to the town, which grew owing to the railway and road connections. Soon it became the second largest town in East Prussia, after Königsburg, the capital city of the province. In 1945 Olsztyn returned to Poland and became the capital of the Province of Warmia and Mazury. The town keeps growing. Today, with the population of nearly 200,000 people, it is also a university town, rich in magnificent historic buildings as well as various cultural and scientific institutions.

St James the Elder, patron saint of Olsztyn
Saint James the Elder, a protector of travellers and pilgrims, has been the patron saint of Olsztyn for 650 years. Saint James, one of the Twelve Apostles, was a fisherman and a disciple of Jesus Christ. For adhering to and spreading the new faith he was executed in 44 A.D., when Agrippa I, Herod the Great’s grandson, was the king of Israel. The cult of St James spread all over Europe, reaching Prussia and Olsztyn. The image of the saint has always featured in the town’s coat of arms, the municipal seals and in many sculptures and reliefs decorating the town’s buildings. The attributes of St James are a shell – a symbol of modesty, virtue and a promise to satiate pilgrims’ thirst, and a staff – a symbol of a wayfarer but also of power and distinction.

The coat of arms
The figure of St James has been in the coat of arms of Olsztyn ever since the town was established. Over the ages the saint has been featured in different ways. Today it is a figure in a white robe, with a gold halo over the head, set against the blue background. In one hand he holds a golden shell and in the other – a walking stick.

The anthem
The Anthem of Warmia was composed by Feliks Nowowiejski to the poem ‘Oh Warmia, My Beloved Land’. Each day at noon the anthem is chimed from the tower of Olsztyn’s New Town Hall.

Legends enrich history
Apart from facts, historic personages and dates, there are countless legends, which make the town’s history more interesting and easier to remember. After all, don’t we all enjoy fairy tales? Told by grannies, they pass from generation to generation. And when legends are told by poets and writers, they live much longer as they come in print.

A legend about St James – the town’s patron saint
Years and years ago, Saint James set off on the Amber Tract. It was an arduous and exhausting journey. Many times the holy man stumbled over tree roots protruding from the ground or fell into deep ruts left by carts which merchants from ancient Rome, Greece or Byzantium drove to the Baltic Sea to buy precious amber [...]. And so is Saint Joseph walking forward. He sighs from time to time in the hope of meeting some people who would give the exhausted wanderer a roof over the head to catch some decent rest. Another night approaches and – alas, where will he hide from the chill? He sees a meandering river and sits on its banks, resting his head on a pine tree and Saint James begins to ponder. He feels a pang of hunger – so he reaches for his sack but it is completely empty – not a breadcrumb left. He nods his head sadly – will his days end here, in the midst of this deep forest? ‘Save me, my Lord!’ – he prays. Suddenly, he sees a lovely young maiden going out of the river. She gives him some water in a gourd – and then vanishes. The saint rinses the throat, washes his feet and sits back by the pine. But then, suddenly, there’s some commotion in the forest. A brown bear treads heavily through the woods, holding a huge honeycomb in a paw [...].

TRIVIA
• There is a legend passed among residents of Olsztyn that the High Gate has magic charm. Just walk through the gate saying your innermost wish, and it is bound to come true.
• Some other people believe that the Prussian Baba, a stone statue carved by pagan Baltic Prussians, can make your wish come true. Want to find out if it is true? Just hold the nose of the statue, say a wish ... and wait.

Now Saint James ate his fill. Then he drank some water and lay down on soft moss. But autumn was in the air so the night was chilly and misty. Under his cloak Saint James was trembling from cold. ‘If I had a flint and steel’ – he thinks – ‘I’d make a fire and feel warm’. But he had lost his flint and steel somewhere during the journey .... ‘Oh, help me, my Lord’ – he pleaded. All of a sudden he heard the crackle of twigs. Raising the head he saw a beautiful large stag with its head lowered to the ground. The animal rubbed its large glistening antlers against a bunch of twigs lying in front of it. Soon brightly yellow flames shot out and the fire dispelled the darkness of the night [...]. Saint James could sleep safe and warm. In the morning he fried a large handful of mushrooms, which grew abundantly in the forest. He had also gathered some herbs and boiled them with honey to drink. Feeling much stronger the saint picked up his walking stick with the sack and set off. After a while he reached a clearing in the forest and there, above a hill he saw a faint trail of smoke. ‘If there’s smoke,’ – he thought – ‘there’ll be some people too.’ So he headed towards the hill and from its top, down in a river valley, he could see a small wooden village and fishing nets hanging from poles. There were some women on the river bank, washing clothes with paddles. He came up to them, bid them good morning and asked about the name of the village. ‘Our village doesn’t have a name’ – they replied – ‘Nobody has thought of a name for it. We all say – I’m going home – and that’s all.’ Saint James thought for a while and said ‘You have so many alder trees here. What do you call them in your language?’ ‘Olszyna’ – the women told him. ‘So why don’t you call your village Olsztyn?’ – he said. The women dropped the washing and Maria Zientara-Malewska was born in 1894 in Brąswald, a village near Olsztyn. She was a poet and a teacher. She loved children and children loved her. It was for children that she wrote her poems, fairy tales and legends about Warmia. She also helped set up Polish preschools in villages. By being active in Polish societies, she tried to strengthened links between residents of Warmia and Poland. She lived to be ninety.

ran to their cottages, telling everybody they met that a pilgrim had arrived from the wide world and invented a name for their village. Who knows what interesting things he was going to tell the villagers. The fishermen were sleeping after a night spent catching fish but when they heard their wives’ loud voices, they jumped from their beds to see the wayfarer and hear his stories. Fishermen are not a talkative folk but they love listening to others. This time, however, when they saw how tired the stranger was, they first gave him some tasty fish to eat. […] Saint James told them about the faraway world, about his journey and hardship. The villagers in return talked about their everyday troubles and worries. As days passed Saint James began to feel so comfortable among those simple people and green alders that he stayed in the village for good. He loved the villagers with all his heart but he was not used to sitting idle all day, so he began to weave baskets and trugs. From time to time he sat on a fishing boat and went with the others to some distant lakes – Długie, Łukiel, Wadęskie – just to help them fishing. Now the people who lived in Olsztyn got used to the kind old man so much that they worried he could leave them one day. They thought and thought of a way to keep Saint James in their village. One day they came up with an idea. As soon as spring came, they started to make bricks but kept it secret from the saint […] Once they had enough bricks they started to build a church near the river bank. As they wanted Saint James to like the church, they did all they could for the building to be the most beautiful one in the world. When they finished their work, they asked Saint James to become patron saint of the church. Saint James saw the good hearts of the people and the beautiful church – he was so moved that he promised to stay in Olsztyn forever and to be the guardian of the church and the village. Many years passed since then. The village grew into the town and its residents placed the image of Saint James the Elder in the town’s coat of arms as a sign of gratitude and love. Wearing a pilgrim’s robe, holding a walking stick in one hand and a gourd with water in the other – Saint James looked just like the legend said. And then, when the town was surrounded with walls and a gatehouse was built – today known as the High Gate – the gate too was dedicated to the saint. And so, for many, many years, Saint James has been the patron saint of the church, the coat of arms and the gate to the town of Olsztyn.

A LEGEND FROM OLSZTYN CATHEDRAL

The Cathedral Church of St James the Elder has a legendary chandelier with red deer antlers (16th century). Once, during a hunt in the woods around the town, a red deer chased out of the forest escaped to the town, reached the church, ran inside and dropped dead on the floor. To commemorate this unusual incident, a wooden chandelier was made featuring a stag’s head.
Historic buildings

The Castle – start your visit to Olsztyn Castle by saying a wish while grabbing the nose of the Prussian Baba, a stone statue standing in the inner ward. It is said to make wishes come true. The castle, built in the 14th century, was the largest fortress held by the Chapter of Warmia. In the past, the castle contained an armoury, baths, a coach house, horse stables, etc. Today it houses the Museum of Warmia and Mazury.

St James’s Church – the church was built from 1315 to 1380. It won’t be an exaggeration to say that the church has accompanied the town of Olsztyn since its earliest times. Although the exterior of the church was shaped for a few centuries, the building has well balanced proportions and a uniform style. The impressive belfry is nearly 70 meters tall. Since 1973 the church has had a function of a cathedral and in 2003 it was named a Cathedral Basilica by Pope John Paul II.

The High Gate – one of the three gatehouses to the town, also known as the Upper Gate. Over the centuries it has been used for various functions, for example an armoury and a prison. Once it gave shelter to the homeless. At present it houses a hotel.

The Old Town Hall – a former seat of the town’s authorities, today a library and a venue of many interesting art exhibitions. After the renovation works completed in 2003, the Old Town Hall regained its original shape. The oldest part of the building dates back to the 16th century.

The New Town Hall – built in 1916, it houses the Council of Olsztyn. The site was formerly occupied by the Holy Cross Church (built in the 15th century) and a graveyard.
Famous people

Jan of Łajsy – the founder of Olsztyn. He was appointed a lifelong mayor of the town, the position inherited by his heirs.

Nicolas Copernicus – a great Polish astronomer, who lived in Olsztyn Castle as an administrator of the Estates of the Chapter. He spent 40 years of his life in Warmia, including six years in Olsztyn. Here he pursued his scientific interests and determined the spring equinox. The instruments he used for astronomical measurements can be seen in the castle. Copernicus also practiced medicine, drew cartographic maps and described his work in documents, many of which have survived until the present day. Being the administrator of Olsztyn Castle, he prepared the fortress to defend against the Teutonic Knights.

Feliks Nowowiejski – a composer, lived in Olsztyn and played in a local military band; later he became an organ master in St James’s Church. He composed 4 symphonies, 10 masses, symphonic poems and about 600 songs. He is v as the composer of the song ‘O Warmia, My Beloved Land’, which today is the anthem of Olsztyn.

Erich Mendelsohn – a son of a merchant from Olsztyn, a well-known architect, born in 1887 in Olsztyn, where he spent his childhood and graduated from a secondary school for boys. He became world famous by designing such buildings as the Einstein Tower in Potsdam. The house where he was born (at the corner of Staromiejska and St Barbara Streets) bears a commemorative plaque.

Cardinal Józef Glemp – the Primate of Poland, in 1978–1981 he administered the Diocese of Warmia as the bishop of Warmia.

The celebrations of the 650th anniversary of the town’s foundation started the tradition of James Parades, held in July, which are part of the annual festivities dedicated to the patron saint of Olsztyn, St James the Elder.
Culture

The cultural life in Olsztyn has been shaped since the town was established in 1353. It has been a long and complex process. Today culture is created by the people of Olsztyn – those who have lived here for many years and those who have arrived from different parts of Poland and decided to settle here. Culture – it’s a variety of institutions such as theatres, galleries and museums. Culture – it’s people like writers, artists, musicians, designers. And culture – it’s also events, without which the town would be sad and boring.

Museum

Olsztyn has several branches of the Museum of Warmia and Mazury (the Olsztynska Newspaper House, the Museum of Natural History), but the most important seat of the Museum is the castle. Go there and you are bound to get involved in one of these:
• minting coins, climbing the castle tower, night visit to the castle, etc.
• ‘Summer Thursdays with Nicolas Copernicus’ – a face-to-face meeting with the castle’s most prominent resident. This is an educational and entertaining event addressed to both residents of Olsztyn and tourists (July and August). The main attraction of the Thursdays is Nicolas Copernicus, who tells visitors about his discoveries and presents the astronomical instruments he used. The actor who impersonates the astronomer will take you around the Museum but he will also show you some nooks and corners of the castle which are not normally open to the public. Besides, you will have a chance to impersonate a medieval character, for example a coin minter – and produce yourself a commemorative coin called 1 copernicus. Or you can become an old-fashioned printer and print a copy of a document in an antique printing press. You can turn into a medieval burgher trying on historic costumes. After that take a rest and sit in the shaded court of the castle, sipping coffee or chilled soft drinks, watching knights in combat or a show of the Korzunowicz Family Informal Animation Theatre, which presents historic figures connected with our town and the region. Special attractions are prepared for young children, such as a visual art plein air or a treasure hunt. Your attendance in a ‘Thursday at the Castle’ will be commemorated with a specially designed certificate.

Concerts and shows, music and dance, colourful costumes and motion ... there is no time to feel bored in Olsztyn.

Theatres

• Stefan Jaracz Theatre has the status of a national theatre. Its history dates back to 1925. The building was raised as a gift of gratitude to inhabitants of Olsztyn, who chose Germany for their state in the plebiscite of 1920. It was named das Treudank, which in the German language means ‘gratitude for being faithful’.

• The Puppet Theatre, beside staging interesting plays, runs many courses for children and teenagers about the history and theory of theatrical art. The Theatre Education Council gathers children from primary and secondary school.

Libraries

Among the many traditional libraries in Olsztyn, two places stand out:

• the PLANETA 11 for teenagers (age 13 to as long as you feel young at heart). Exceptional, modern and breaching all stereotypes, this library is a place where you find information, education and entertainment. It offers more than good books. It is enjoyed by bookworms as much as by music lovers, computer game players, Internet maniacs and cinema goers.

• the ABECADŁO for very young children and pre-teens (age 3 to 13) – it is a multimedia library, containing traditional books and magazines, including speaking books, programmes, game books, films, music CDs, board and computer games. Loud reading, games and plays, and even birthday parties – all this happens in the Abecadło. The library has something to offer to parents – there are books on emotional, educational or school problems one may have when raising children. There are also meeting with parents devoted to children’s problems.

IT IS WORTH KNOWING THAT:

• Since 1997 the Olsztyn Puppet Theatre has been organising an annual Olsztyn Puppet Theatre Review, a review of theatrical performances, interesting and highly varied in terms of form and aesthetic values, staged by Polish and foreign puppet theatres.

• Every week groups of schoolchildren, who come to Stefan Jaracz Theatre, can see the backstage and find out more about actors’ work. Young children are especially fascinated – for them actors’ dressing rooms are a magic place.

• Every day at 5.00 p.m. the Abecadło Library runs workshops on literature, visual arts, music, tourism and other subjects. Topics for workshops can be suggested to the librarians by participants.
Sitting over books for long hours is not the only way of acquiring knowledge. In historic places or cultural and scientific centres, learning can be fun and will help to combine theory and practice. And what can you achieve? Well, one day you may well win a knowledge competition!

The Planetarium (al. Piłsudskiego 38, tel. 089 533 49 51) – the Planetarium of Space Flights in Olsztyn was opened on the 500th anniversary of Nicolas Copernicus’s birth (in 1973). In 1982 it was renamed to the Planetarium and Astronomical Observatory. For years thousands of people have admired the sky above Olsztyn through the telescopes in the Observatory and watched other astronomical phenomena under the dome of the Planetarium.

- Shows for children (Mister Astronomer’s Tales, A Space Gallery, Tales about the Sky and Stars, the Earth in Space);
- Grades 1 to 3 of primary schools – the Earth in Space;
- Nature in primary schools and Physics in lower secondary schools (The Sun is a Compass, a Clock and a Calendar, the Rotary Movement of the Earth and Its Consequences, the Solar System);
- The Planetarium has several exhibitions (Matter from Space, Astronomical Instruments in the Times of Nicolas Copernicus, Sputnik I, the Lunar Opposition and Solar Eclipse of 31st May 2003) (in the Observatory) and a specialist library.

The Astronomical Observatory – (ul. Żołnierska 13, tel. 089 527 67 03) shows of starlit sky at night and spots on the sun during the day, views of the panorama of the town.

The Museum of Warmia and Mazury

Lessons in the museum during the school year – teachers and pupils are invited to a more attractive form of education. The lessons are conducted using interesting tools to keep learners active, e.g. educational games and plays, worksheets, OHPs, multimedia presentations, contests, films. The following subjects are on the offer:

– Regional History – lessons held in the castle (sample topics ‘Mysteries of the Battlefield at Grunwald’, ‘What Peasants Ate and Drank’)

Tickets for an unguided visit to any of these museums include a fee for a lesson in the museum.

Nature

The unique location of Olsztyn, set in a valley of the Łyna River, among forests, lakes and rolling hills, makes it a perfect place to relax or to pursue tourism and sports. The Łyna River cuts Olsztyn in two parts. The forests surrounding the town are rich in fruits of nature: mushrooms, wild strawberries and blueberries. They are also inhabited by wild animals, such as roe deer, European elk, foxes, racoon dogs and wild boar. There are about 150 species of birds in the woods of Olsztyn.
Lakes
There are 11 lakes in the town, most of which lie in the western part of Olsztyn. The largest ones are Krzywe Lake, also known as Ukiel Lake (412 ha), Kortowskie Lake (89 ha), Track Lake (58 ha) and Skanda Lake (51 ha). Krzywe Lake is one of the 100 largest Polish lakes. It has a municipal beach and many marinas for yachts and canoes, which create splendid conditions for swimming, sailing, windsurfing and other water sports. The lake is also liked by anglers, even very young ones.

Rivers
There are three rivers passing through Olsztyn. Two of them, the Łyna and the Wadąg, meet in the Municipal Forest. The largest one is the Łyna River. In the past it defended the town and provided the burghers with water. Until the first half of the 19th century the Łyna was a navigable river. Today the largest boat for travelling on this river is a canoe. The section of the Łyna that runs through Olsztyn is 17.5 km long.

The Wadąg is the second largest river flowing along the borders of Olsztyn at a length of about 5 km. It is a right tributary of the Łyna.

The Kortówka, 3.4 km in length, flows from Krzywe Lake, passes through Kortowskie Lake and falls into the Łyna.

Parks
There are 12 parks in Olsztyn, covering in total 75 ha. Trees and shrubs come in a rich variety of species – 190 in total, dominated by deciduous plants. Many of the species are foreign in origin. The parks are varied in the surface area, character and age of plants. The largest ones are:
- Kusociński Park (a playground, a skatepark) – 16.8 ha,
- Jakubowo Park – 13.5 ha,
- Podzamcze Park – 12 ha.

Four parks (Jakubowo, Jeziorko Czarne, Kusociński, Podzamce) have ponds or small lakes. Podzamcze Park is cut by the Łyna River. The parks are liked by both adults and children as a place for strolling, jogging, cycling or roller-skating. There are also playgrounds, fields for team games and tennis courts.

Two new parks are being planned. One, to be named Central Park on the Łyna, will have footpaths and bicycle lanes, a new amphitheatre with two thousand seats and a vantage point. There will also be a café and a square with a fountain, located behind the amphitheatre on the banks of the Łyna River. Strollers will be able to take a rest sitting near one of water ponds. There will be playgrounds for young children. The park will have a car park and toilets for dogs. There will be piers and a canoe jetty in the river bend with a tourist information centre nearby. There will be three footbridges to cross the Łyna. Another park planned in Olsztyn will serve sports and recreational purposes. It will be set up on the greens between the OSIR swimming pool and the Urania sports hall. It will feature a rock climbing wall, a skatepark and bicycle paths. There will also be a roofed building to house trade fairs, which on other occasions will be turned into a go-cart track. Other attractions will include an outdoor art gallery, an ice rink and a mini golf course as well as a site for live happenings and performances.
Forests
Woods, which cover 1,867 ha in Olsztyn, are the wildest component of the town’s green areas. Apart from the Municipal Forest, there are also a few privately owned woods and some areas of state-owned forests, which belong to the Olsztyn and Kudypy State Forest Districts. The most common tree species are Scottish pine, birch, Norway spruce, oak, alder and beech.

The Municipal Forest in the northern part of Olsztyn covers 1,054 ha area. It contains two peatbog nature reserves: Redykajny and Mszar. There are many bicycle and foot paths in the forest. For the youngest strollers there are information boards near ‘The Fortress Playground’, which were put up to give a view of the richness of the Municipal Forest, to awake respect to the surrounding nature and to develop eco-friendly attitudes among children.

Walking trails
The Warmia and Mazury Branch of the Polish Tourist and Sightseeing Society (in Polish: the PTTK) has set up and signposted four foot trails in the Municipal Forest. The network of footpaths enables visitors to discover the most charming places in the forest. The starting and finishing points are located near bus stops and terminals, which means

Once you cross the threshold of the Fortress, you are taken on a journey to the past.
they are easy to reach. Good signposting makes it easy to plan your route and find your way in the forest.

• The Copernicus Red Trail – to the water power plant (5.3 km). The trail starts in the centre of Olsztyn, at the PTTK building near the High Gate.

• The Piotr Diernow Yellow Trail (10.3 km). It starts at the terminal bus stop in Jakubowo Park.

• The Strolling Blue Trail (4 km). The shortest trail; begins at the crossroads of Bałtycka and Leśna Streets and runs first on the pavement and then on a footpath near Długie Lake (0.25 km), where you can see a lovely view of the houses on the other side of the lake. There are two rest points on the trail – an Indian village, where children can play, and a cliff-top vantage point, where you can see one of the gorges on the Łyna River. The blue and the yellow trails overlap for about 800 meters, leading to Jakubowo. The blue trail ends at the terminal bus stop.

• The Alojzy Śliwa Black Trail (4.5 km section is described). The trail starts at the PTTK building near the High Gate.

For a more detailed description of all the trails see the website of the Municipal Forest www.lasmiejski.pl

Recreation in Olsztyn means active relaxation – there’s no other way. You can’t say no to many walking trails in the Municipal Forest, to cycling paths, horse riding tracts or to the charming lakes with forested shores. Don’t waste your time – set off on a shorter or longer trip, on foot or by bicycle, whichever way – just remember – if you spend your free time actively, you will be fit and you will see the places you would never discover travelling by car or surfing the internet.
ON LAND

Walking
The Laurencja Family Club – the Club has long been organising what is now part of the town’s tradition, the Seven League Boots - walking excursions for kids aged 4 to 10 with guardian adults. The excursions take place once a month (10 times a year, excluding summer holiday) on different routes around Olsztyn (6 to 12 km) and traditionally finish with a bonfire. Participating children, depending on the number of miles they have covered, can be awarded a silver or golden Seven League Boots badge. The December excursion is known as ‘A Seven League Boots Badge with Santa Clause’ (an additional charge for Christmas presents for the children).

The Regional Hiking Tourism Commission organises excursions for school children guarded by adults held on every second Sunday of the month; various routes up to 15 km, e.g. ‘A Trip with Friends’, ‘Let’s Learn History’, ‘On the Trail of Independence’, etc.

Horse riding
The Janusz Kojrys Horse Stables. The riding stables lie in a former village of Redykajny, now a suburb of Olsztyn, on a charming hill surrounded by forests and lakes. A perfect place for those who love horses, nature and folk art – all in an old Warmia-style farmstead, where about 50 horses are bred. Beside horse breeding, the stable owners organise folk entertainment and horse riding lessons. The stables are open all year to individual and group visitors.
The Grądek Horse Stables near Trackie Lake. Apart from horseback riding and rides in horse-drawn coaches and carts, there are also bonfires with an accompanying music band and a place to organise family celebrations. Children can take part in special events for schools and in Christmas parties.

The Janczary Horse Stables. It is a dream place for a family holiday, just 10 km away from Olsztyn, among lovely forests on picturesque Wadąg Lake. Every day the stables attract lovers of horse riding, angling and, in season, mushroom picking. Other attractions: coach rides, organised games, horse riding, quad rides.

Cycling

The Kołodrom Active Tourism Society. The Kołodrom organises cycling events in and around Olsztyn, which can be joined by children and teenagers accompanied by adults. Summer cycling trips called “Bike, don’t drive” are a chance to discover interesting places, people, historical facts and local traditions. The Mayor of Olsztyn Cup in Cycling, a family sports event, is organised for primary and secondary schoolchildren, whereas those cyclists who look for a more thrilling experience can take part in the Mini Down Hill contest.

Two wheels and the world is an oyster

The sooner the better
ON THE WATER
Olsztyn offers marvellous conditions for water relaxation. The marinas and jetties have paddle boats, canoes and yachts on hire. The largest lake in Olsztyn, Krzywe Lake, holds a surprise for you – the first isthmus you will reach, named rather amazingly the Lion’s Mouth, is so shallow that you can nearly walk on water. Canoeing on the Łyna River is an unforgettable experience – the seemingly slow river becomes faster and wider. Within minutes you will feel as if in the middle of a wild jungle rather than in the heart of a town populated by nearly 200,000 people.

IN THE AIR
A visit to the airfield in Dajtki is worth a while. There you can see gliders, small passenger planes and sports airplanes. In the sky you can watch aerial acrobatics of pilots and parachutists. Accompanied by an adult guardian you can also take a flight and see a bird’s eye view of Olsztyn.

TRIVIA
Even young children, aged 4 and over, can take part in a flight – always under care and with parents’ consent. A twenty-minute flight costs 440 zł.

Whoever feels attracted to the sky expanse, will come to the airfield in Olsztyn
IMPORTANT TOURIST SIGHTS NEAR OLSZTYN

The arboretum in Kudypy – a specialist botanic garden, where forest trees and shrubs are grown for scientific and educational purposes.

The Strusiolandia African Ostrich Farm. Visitors can count on many attractions: guided tours, rides in an ostrich-drawn carriage, shows of ostrich rodeo, barbecue or bonfire parties in the Chata Warmińska Inn, unusual delicacies and local regional dishes. On offer: green schools, winter sledge rides, special occasion parties (St Andrew’s Night, New Year’s Eve, Valentine’s Day), family celebrations (e.g. first holy communion), picnics, etc.

The Ethnographic Park in Olsztynek (the Skansen). There you will travel to the world a hundred years ago. A visit to the Skansen is a splendid time for all families to relax. Dozens of buildings representing traditional countryside architecture in Warmia, Mazury and some other regions, including cottages, a church, an oil press, a school classroom, a fire brigade station, a blacksmith’s workshop, a potter’s workshop, stables and windmills, stand among fields, meadows and pastures cut by a small river known as the Jemiołówka. There are exhibitions to be seen – of traditional craftsmanship and of contemporary art. The special atmosphere is created by the presence of farm animals and birds. Visitors can also see how farmers used to live and work in the past – they can try to write with a quill, eat some home baked bread, pluck feathers or do laundry on a washboard. They can find out secrets of some disappearing crafts, such as a blacksmith or a potter. The Skansen holds special events, for example Children’s Day, Festival of Children Songs, Harvest Festival, Festival of Folk Art and lessons in the museum.
Let’s play and relax

‘What shall we do when we have tried out everything...’ There are such places in our town where fairy tales, games and plays for kids are an everyday experience and sometimes sneak into lives of adults. The youngest children as well as those a little bit older love such places. So when you need some more fun, why don’t you use up your energy in one of the games and plays centres, which offer equipment for active games. Kids love fairy tales and a birthday party can be a good opportunity to make a trip to the fairy-tale world. Let’s discover those places together.

The Figlolandia – the largest play centre for children in the region. Open 7 days a week. The centre’s biggest attraction is a structure with slides, multi-level mazes, ball pits, climbing walls, etc. Children can play with toy vehicles, cars, tractors with trailers, houses and dolls for kids. Face painting, a lollipop and a balloon for every child visitor. Birthday parties are held in three theme rooms: „Winnie the Pooh’s Birthday Cake”, „A Witch’s Castle” and „A Pirate Ship”. Special occasion parties held in any of these rooms will guarantee unforgettable memories (party games, a sweet gift for a child celebrating his or her birthday). A café for parents, fairy-like interior design and friendly staff will bring a smile on the face of every child.

The Małpi Gaj – a recreational and athletics centre. Attractions: a ball pit, slides, small cars, a jumping castle, face painting, a theatre, a stage, mini-playback shows, arcade games (additional fee), buffet and coffee bar with TV, parties for groups of children. Birthday parties: three rooms to choose (pink, planet and birthday cake), tableware, decorations, 20-minute games and competitions, a birthday present, face painting, use of the centre’s facilities for playing, karaoke. Summer holiday daytime care: at least 5 hours per day. Fancy dress costumes for hire (all year).

The Urwis – an indoor playground. Attractions: a ball pit, slides, mazes, play station games, Nintendo games, play structures with bridges, face painting. The fee covers child care. Birthday parties: 2 hours of fun for 150 zł (a group of 10). Special programme: 1.5 hour of fun for organised groups of children.

Meals

Bonfire or barbecue parties, good fun and long nights sitting by the lake and playing the guitar – this is more than a meal after an exhausting active day; this is also making new friends and being close to the nature. This is what we can offer to you, plus those warm memories to cherish during winter nights.

Accommodation

Younger children to stay overnight with their parents, somewhere near a lake or close to the Old Town; older children to accommodate in youth hostels or on camping sites – they all deserve a good night sleep, even though an early sunrise in summer won’t allow you to have a lie-in. Rise and shine!

All hotels, guesthouses, B&Bs and camping sites are hospitable and friendly to children. The Novotel, located on Krzywe Lake, very close to a forest, beach and tourist trails, pays special attention to its youngest guests. Like other hotels in this chain, the Olsztyn Novotel has a Dolfi playground for children and a special menu for the youngest guests. There is an additional games space next to the reception.

Another place which offers very good conditions for children is the Tawerna Pirat (the Pirate Inn). Its modest size guarantees family-like atmosphere and quiet relaxation. Standing on the hotel’s jetty you can admire one of the charming inlets on Krzywe Lake. The hotel owners have prepared a playground for children.

Those who prefer to rest away from the noise of a town are welcome to stay in one of the hospitality farms near Olsztyn: the Ziołowa Dolina (the Herb Valley) and the Trzcinowa Dolina (the Reed Valley) on the Wadąg River. Families and single tourists can stay there in all seasons of the year. Apart from good food and comfortable beds, they can enjoy lovely natural surroundings. The owners will make sure you have an attractive stay.

Open up to your passions and dreams, develop your skills, train your mind, nourish and shape your talents – and your life is bound to be exciting, just as exciting as you will be to others. In Olsztyn, there are many opportunities to learn outside school – there are language classes, dance schools and other courses which develop your mind and body. Give it a go and then recommend your favourites to others. Olsztyn is a town of young people with a great potential. Think well what you would like to choose but don’t worry if your interests change.

Foreign languages

Living in Olsztyn, Warmia, Poland, Europe, you must but know some of the languages spoken on our continent. Young Poles are now living closer to France, England, Germany or Italy – they are in touch with young Germans, French or Brits. Summer camps, holiday with parents, school and the Internet, which brings people together – they all motivate us to learn foreign languages and to test our skills.

At the Helen Doron Centre young children age 1 and over are learning English

The Callan method prevails in many foreign language schools in Olsztyn
Learning music

Music – whether classical or pop, rock-and-roll and jazz – broadens imagination and soothes the savage breast. Before you decide which type of music suits you best, you need to learn the basics and the best way is by playing music yourself. Many young music learners turn into outstanding musicians. This could be your career. And if not, you will at least become a music lover.

The YAMAHA Music School, for babies (4 months of age) to adults (getting used to music, a music preschool, learning to play the piano, violin, guitar from the age of 3, all classical key instruments, drums and keyboard).

The „Świerszczyki” – a music group – a group of children aged 3 to 18 playing the violin according to the Suzuki method. The group is affiliated with the ‘Pojezierze’ Social and Cultural Society. There are individual lessons once a week, group meetings, learning by playing, and concerts given by the whole group.

„Practice makes perfect” – why not practise by playing games
Learning to dance

Olsztyn is a capital of dance. You must have heard this opinion. Tradition obliges so we must train dancing. Especially these days when dancing is so popular. People from all walks of life dance – actors, singers, politicians. We all dream to dance like Fred Astaire or John Travolta. Dance with us!

The PAVLOVIC Master Dance School
Ballet (ballet workshops for girls in two age groups: 5–7 and 8–10; Disco Dance (lessons for children aged 6–12); dance for children (lessons for children age 4–13; age groups: 4–6, 7–8 and 9–13); social dancesport (lessons in the club for children age 7–14); Break Dance (7–14 lat); Hip Hop (9–13 lat).

‘Przedszkolak’ – for preschool children – an individual dance teaching programme for children age 4–6; The ‘Figo’ Children’s Dancing Group (age 7 and over); Summer dancing holiday for young learners of dance.

The Crea Dance Centre – Wasilewski and Felska
The Crea Dance is the latest method of teaching dance through playing techniques. It enables learners to use their natural skills, facilitates healthy development of a young body and shapes the figure.

Classes for children: the mini mini disco (age 0–4; on Thursdays), the Kids’ Crea Dance Club (age 4–6, on Thursdays), the Hip Hop Kids (Wednesdays). The Olympic School of Dance and Good Manners (age 6–10, Mondays at 4.30 p.m.). The Crea Dance Centre also organises dance lessons in primary schools in Olsztyn. The annual course covers one lesson a week (about 32 lessons a year).

Classes for teenagers: Social dance for beginners – solo and pairs, able to dance in any social situation: Wednesdays at 5.30 p.m. Video Clip Dancing – the latest music, the latest hits from VIVA and MTV as well as superb choreography. Hip Hop on Tuesdays, Break Dance on Fridays, Summer holidays and winter breaks (also for those not participating in our dance courses), birthday parties.

The Power Dance Club of DanceSport
For girls and boys aged 5 and over. Social and recreational dance for beginners (classes twice weekly); social dancesport for groups and couples in lower and higher dance grades, who take part in dance tournaments (classes 3 or 4 times a week).

The Oskar Social Sport Dance
Teaching dance to children in three age groups: to 7 years of age, 8-9 and 10-11. The programme includes Latin American, standard, disco and folk dances. Classes 2-3 times a week.

HI-LOW – dancesport for children
Various forms of modern dance: hip hop, disco dance, free style disco show. The course participants can take part in dance tournaments.
Classes held on Tue and Thurs 5.00–6.00 p.m. (intermediate group, age 8–10), 6.00–7.00 p.m. (advanced group, age 11), 7.00–8.00 p.m. (Hi-Low group).

The Warmia Song and Dance Ensemble
Learning Polish and foreign folk dances and songs in children and teenage groups, finding out about folk traditions in different regions of Poland. The ensemble takes part in shows and contests. Classes twice a week.

Courses

AKADEMIA NAUKI
Courses for children:
• English and German for children,
• ‘Smart Kid’ – an effective learning course for children age 7–11,
• ‘Smart Kid’ – a continuation course,
• ‘Young Discoverer’ – a course for preschool children in learning to read and developing intelligence.

Courses for lower secondary schoolchildren:
• a conversational English language course using the Callan method – learning to speak English quickly – a TECL examination course,
• a conversational German language course – learning to speak quickly,
• ‘A Student with a Personality’ – a course in effective learning and fast reading.

Workshops for parents of young children (aged 0–6) ‘How to improve the intelligence of a young child’.

IT IS WORTH KNOWING THAT:
Akademia Nauki (the Learning and Teaching Academy) is an unusual school, which offers unique courses to children and teenagers, for example a course in effective learning. The programme comprises:
– improving the effectiveness and quality of reading,
– memory techniques, i.e. how to remember quickly and easily dates, numbers, facts, faces, names, etc.
– training concentration,
– educational kinesiology, i.e. body movements which improve the work of our mind,
– maps of thoughts – user friendly note taking,
– training to enhance self-confidence,
– creative thinking.
All those skills are taught by playing games.

Children find the unconventional methods very attractive
The Local Salesian Society ‘SportSalos’. The oratory comprises many groups, open to all those who look for an individual, person-specific expression of their personality. Everyone is welcome to join in any of the groups (sport-Salos, singing group, altar boys, scouts) or clubs (missionary, visual arts, film, self-defence, theatrical or cycling clubs) and any time they choose.

The Polish Scouting Association, the Rodło Scout Troop
Children and teenagers take part in the scouting movement in four age groups: boy and girl guides (6–10 years of age), boy and girl scouts (11–13), older boy and girls scouts (14–16), boy and girl wanderers (16–25). The activities involve impersonating someone or something (guides), games (scouts), searching games (older scouts) and service and challenge (in the oldest group of scouts).

It has long been known that scouting is a good school of life.

‘A healthy mind in a healthy body’ – in Olsztyn, with a variety of sports facilities and events at hand, this is more than a proverb. Many successful sport champions who come from Olsztyn motivate young people and make some types of sport more popular than others but the truth is that you can become a master in many less known, undiscovered sport disciplines. You too can be number one and stand on the highest podium and it is entirely up to you – the town gives you a chance. There are tennis courts, football pitches, stadiums, a swimming pool or gymnastics halls open to you and in the near future there will be a new, large sports and recreational centre.

Indoors and outdoors – ball games for everyone

Individual and team sports – you can train all year round. There are many indoor and outdoor sports facilities to help you. Whether you want to play football – whose best days when the Stomil football team played in the Prime League are still remembered, or volleyball – which owing to the successful AZS team is having its best time – come to one of the sports club or ask your school sports coach. Other attractive sports, well worth your interest, are gymnastics, chess, tennis or combat sports. There are many sport champions in Olsztyn and the number of those who want to follow in their footsteps is on the increase. Practice makes perfect. Follow the masters.
When you live in a town scattered with lakes, you are bound to get interested in water sports. The marinas in Olsztyn and the water sports champions who come from our town offer canoeing lessons, sailing courses for beginners and diving courses. Would you like to become a sailing champion like Karol Jabłoński? But first you need to learn swimming. The swimming pool in Olsztyn offers lessons to very young children and even a-few-month-old babies. And then, even if you never become a champion, swimming and sailing will give you many wonderful experiences and will shape your body.

The forests and countryside around Olsztyn are a perfect place for horse riding, cycling or playing golf. There are many horse stables and riding centres around the town as well as miles and miles of trails in the forests, which are a paradise for horse lovers and equine sports enthusiasts. But before you set off, first you need to spend some hours training horse riding on a lunge, with an instructor to teach you how to keep safe.
Bicycle paths along the shores of Ukiel Lake and in the Municipal Forest as well as roads around Olsztyn are a perfect place to practice cycling. The Tour de Pologne bicycle race, which for the past four years has passed through our town, creates an opportunity to test your skills in smaller bicycle races for young cyclists, which accompany the main event.

The golf course in Naterki near Olsztyn is by no means reserved for adult players. Golf is gaining an increasing popularity in Poland, and young players are keen on acquiring the tricks of this game – golf practices your character and teaches you how to be patient. On top of this, it is very pleasant!

Winter sports – oh, what fun it is to ride...
It’s fun to be outdoors in summer – but it could be just as pleasant to spend free time outside in the winter season, doing winter sports and taking advantage of the climate and landscape of our region.
Ice rinks invite you to take up skating; frozen lakes are host to ice boat racers and beautiful snowy forest trails attract cross-country skiers. If you do winter sports under the guidance of an instructor, this could be more than a pleasant pastime activity. You could be on a road to success.
After an exhausting training session, take a break and go on a horse sleigh ride across the forests near Olsztyn. Wouldn’t it be great?

Two ice rinks in Olsztyn host future figure skating champions.

OTHER VERY USEFUL INFORMATION

All other, very useful information which we couldn’t fit in any of the previous chapters is in this part of the guide. It is just as useful or perhaps even more helpful as it concerns the matters of soul, childcare, shopping and other special services.

You can feel safe in Olsztyn while exploring its attractions. Your safety is guaranteed by the systems of cameras in the Old Town and other popular places in Olsztyn. And when the summer season draws to an end, on the second Sunday of September, come to Jakubowo Park to a all family festival called Safe Olsztyn Festival. You’ll have a great time and get a lot of valuable advice before the school year begins.

And now a little quiz before you set off on a trip round the Old Town or go hiking or cycling in the forests near Olsztyn.

Do you know Olsztyn?

1. Name three historic buildings in Olsztyn.
2. How many lakes are there within the administrative boundaries of Olsztyn?
3. Where in Olsztyn did Nicolas Copernicus live?
4. Who is the patron saint of Olsztyn?
5. Describe the coat of arms of Olsztyn.
6. Name two rivers which flow through Olsztyn
7. What is the so-called Prussian Baba?
8. Do you know any legend connected with Olsztyn?
9. What museum in Olsztyn exhibits a European bison, a wolf or a beaver?
10. What is the name of a hiking trip for children?
11. Where in Olsztyn can you ride an ostrich?

You can find answers to all these questions in our little guide.
